

A Little One Shall Become A Thousand - Part 2

Lorne Sanny

I. A certain kind of person is still refreshing and fruitful in old age. This kind of person leaves a mark and not a blur.

II. The kinds of Christian that leave a mark.

A. They are full of goodness.

1. This is good character.

2. Good character is godly character. (Exodus 34) Fundamental to the character of God is love and holiness.

3. Love is a choice that freely accepts another and seeks their good. The Good Samaritans leave a mark because there are so few of them.

4. Holiness is also a choice. (Romans 8:13)

1. The narrow way is a difficult way.

2. Jesus narrowed life. (Matthew 5)

3. The broad road leads to destruction.

5. Godly character requires training. This is a choice.

B. They are full of knowledge.

C. They are able to admonish.

Application questions.

1. What are the three characteristics of a Christian who leaves a mark?

2. What qualifies good character?

3. Is there something you need to stop to live a godly life? Is there something you need to start? Make a plan to address this issue and seek Christian accountability to assure that it is address.
