

Job – Part 3

Gene Warr

I. Introduction.

A. Friendship is precious in the sight of God. It should be cultivated. (Galatians 6:1; 1 John 4:20; Proverbs 27:10)

B. We live in enemy territory, but sometime the scales of justice will be balanced. (John 12:31; 14:30; 2 Corinthians 4:4; Ephesians 2:2; 6:12; Job 21:7; Psalm 73; Galatians 6:7; Obadiah 15; Job 20:5; 27:16-17)

II. Job knew that one of the greatest problems facing men today was the lust of the eyes. If we lose here, we will lose elsewhere. (Job 31:1, 24-33; 1 John 2:15-16; James 1; Matthew 6:22)

III. One word from God can give us a song in the night. There is much we can praise God for. (Job 35:10; 1 Corinthians 10:13; Lamentations 22:23; Psalm 103:10; 1 Samuel 30:6; Philippians 4:4; Habakkuk 3; Isaiah 61:3; Job 23)

Application questions:

1. What can we do to fight against the lust of the eyes?

2. What can you praise God for to keep the right attitude?

3. What do we need to know about living in enemy territory to stay the course?
