

The Disciple and His Bible

LeRoy Eims

I. Introduction.

A. Through diligent meditation on the Word of God, the heart can become the library of Christ.

B. Do our hearts hunger and thirst for the Word? If you would commit yourself to be men and women of the Word, it could be said of you that your heart became a library of Christ.

C. The Bible is a wonderland where you will find truth that you can find nowhere else in this planet.

II. The gospel is truth designed to lead you to Christ, and Jesus prayed that God would sanctify us with the Word of truth. (Colossians, John 17)

III. The Word of God is the perfect law of liberty, not restrictions. (James 1:25)

A. In disciplining yourself, you will find liberty.

B. The Bible is for reproof, correction and instruction. (II Timothy 3:16)

C. The Bible is the comprehensive instruction for the man of God for any good work. (II Timothy 3:17)

IV. The man is happy whose life is a copy of the will of God. (Psalm 119:1)

A. Meditate on the word. (Luke 24:25)

B. The Word of God is powerful. (Hebrews 4:12)

C. The power of God is in the gospel. (Romans 1:16)

V. What kind of time do you spend in the Word and what would people say of you concerning your current time in the Word? You can be a blessing to people by sharing the Word of God.

Application questions:

1. Why should one get into the Bible?

2. How can the Bible be associated with liberty?

3. Memorize II Timothy 3:16 and write it below. For what kind of activity does this verse suggest the Word is valuable?
