I. Introduction.

II. The simple gospel is simply Jesus. Call on him and you will be saved from the consequence of your sin. Salvation is a gift that cannot be earned. We must believe him and thank him for the gift. (Romans 6:23)

III. Priorities: walk with Jesus; the family (wife first); the means of providing for the family; ministry; recreation. (1 Timothy 5:8)

IV. Anything born of God is spiritual work. (John 3)

V. Every man should give according to his heart. We should ask how much we should keep not how much we should give. The tithe is no longer mandated. Give to where you are getting help and to the poor. (Galatians 6:6)

VI. The reason there is sickness and disease is because man is paying for the wrong choices they took.

VII. Homosexuality is sin. (Romans 1)

VIII. Feminism came from the pit. God created humans male and female. (Genesis)

IX. Do not date to satisfy the flesh. Date only those whom you would marry.

X. Decide you will control your time. If you do not plan it, someone else will plan it for you.

XI. Most work environments are hostile to us. Do not preach at people. Model.

XII. The inner voice should be checked against what God says in the Bible.

XIII. Bankruptcy is involuntary but is usually the result of poor stewardship.

XIV. The only investments that are eternal is investments in people and the Word of God. (2 Peter 3:8; 2 Corinthians 4:18)

XV. Bad things happen to good people because of the Devil. Christians will be persecuted. (Hebrews 5:8; 2 Timothy 3:12)

XVI. Our faith is sometimes weak because we seek the honor of men. (John 5:44)

XVII. You can tell truth by whether the emphasis is on God or not.

XVIII. Pray for those teaching falsehoods. Do not try to reform them. Tell them if you ask.

XIX. The Bible talks about vision. In other cultures God speaks in visions and dreams. (Hebrews 1:2)

XX. Characteristics of a man God will use:

1. He will fit the pattern of the laborer.
2. He will know the objective.
3. He will be equipped to accomplish the objective. (Ephesians 4)
4. He will be committed to completing the objective.
