

Questions and Answers

Gene Warr

I. Introduction.

A. The name of the game is the Word of God and people. These are the only things that will last.

II. John 6:37 is a good verse for a dying man who wants to come to Jesus and be comforted.

III. We should not keep a part of our lives from Jesus. He has our best interest at heart. If we hold back we are missing a blessing. (Jeremiah 29:11)

IV. A widower can marry a divorced woman.

V. To have a dad that is there is just as important as anything else for a child.

VI. Exercise might help with wet dreams. The Bible says we are not supposed to masturbate (because of the mental act). Get in the book to strengthen you.

VII. Do not lie to a potential spouse about not being a virgin.

VIII. Men should never put themselves in a position where they have a choice.

IX. The weight of the Scriptures are on the side of eternal security. (1 John 3:8-10; 3:3-6; Hebrews 10:26; John 6:40; 1 John 1:9)

X. We need to worry about those people around us that are going to hell.

XI. Ride 1 John 1:9 consistently and you will stop failing. If failure is less frequent and intense, you are going in the right direction.

XII. The family comes first.

XIII. If God says to do something, we better do it.

XIV. Pray for a sister who has abandoned her children.

XV. Control your thoughts very carefully. Think on good when a lustful thought comes. Get in the Bible and make yourself accountable to other believers. (Philippians 4:8)

XVI. God says homosexuality is sin. Love will win them out of it. (1 Corinthians 6:9; Leviticus 18:22)

XVII. Repentance is a necessity for salvation. Giving a necessity for salvation is a necessity. (Luke 13)

XVIII. An evil spirit will not harm a Christian unless he invites him in. (1 Samuel 16:14)

XIX. Keys to being a man of God, a man to your wife and a man to your children: walk with God and do what he tells you.

XX. A great concern of the ministry is that it tries to become too much.

- XXI. Loss of privacy is a great concern for today.
- XXII. You can get help from Christian counselors for depression.
- XXIII. We do have a responsibility as a Christian to vote.
- XXIV. Develop life goals by reading the Bible and doing what it tells you.
- XXV. God will tell you if you are not living the life he wants.
- XXVI. Decide what the basics are and stick with them to finish well.
- XXVII. Balance takes thought, energy and patience in the Christian life.
- XXVIII. Love those you have lost credibility with. (1 Corinthians 13:8)
- XXIX. We shouldn't split hairs about the Sabbath. (Galatians 3:24; Romans 3:20; Colossians 2:16)
- XXX. Public schools are falling apart. If you can afford to, send your kids to a Christian school.
- XXXI. Get right after Christians who are slow to pay for your services.

Application questions:

1. Which question and answer did you find most valuable?

---

---

2. Which question might you have answered differently?

---

---

3. What lingering questions do you have? What are some good resources you can use to find out more?

---

---