

Africa Report - Conclusion

Lorne Sanny

I. Introduction.

- A. We are to be doers of the Word and not hearers only. (James 1:21)
- B. What are we going to do?

II. Highlights.

A. "Fruitful branches." (Matthew 28)

1. Concerning the Great Commission we are to make disciples as we go.
2. To get good behavior that is natural we are to abide in Christ and pray. (John 15:7)
3. You take the responsibility for the breath of your life, and God will take care of the depth of your ministry.
4. Goal setting: spend time with God, write down what it says, and make it measurable. (John 15:7)

B. The obedient Christian in action: Christ must be in the center. (John 15:7)

1. Make an affirmation in the morning that you live by faith in the Son of God. We do not only check in with Christ in the morning, but He is with us all day long. (Galatians 2:20, Psalm 46:10)
2. Form a plan for getting into the Word. (Colossians 3:16)
3. Pray. This means we need to listen and also speak to the Lord. (John 15:7, Psalm 5:3)
4. Have fellowship sharing with one another. Then with that group begin focusing outward. (Colossians 3:16, John 15:7)

III. Notes.

Application questions.

1. How is one supposed to make living out the Great Commission a natural thing?

2. What four things must a Christian keep in mind to live an obedient Christian life?

3. Which of the four elements of the obedient Christian life do you struggle with the most? What can you do to change this? Be specific.
