

Disciple and His Bible

LeRoy Eims

I. Introduction.

A. Scripture memory is a powerful investment of time because it is with you for the rest of your life.

B. Text: Psalm 1.

II. The godly man prospers unlike the ungodly.

A. The man who meditates on the Word is like a tree planted by water.

B. That one is under God's special care.

C. The thought that we are under God's special care will help us in those challenging times.

D. God is watching over us. (Psalm 100:21)

III. The Bible stresses that God's people should be happy people. (Psalm 16:11, 8:10, Philippians 4:4, Psalm 100:2-3, John 14:11)

A. The man that is blessed is that one in a thousand.

B. Jesus Christ is everything—He is what life is. (Colossians)

IV. The man of Psalm 1 has chosen the law of God as his source of wisdom.

A. He has chosen God's law because the same person who has authored life gave us the manual to live by.

B. Jesus was the greatest of all teachers, but the only book He ever referred to was the Bible.

C. We are not to turn just to what we feel, but to what the Bible says is right.

D. The Bible is your book—it is what you need for godliness.

Application questions:

1. Why does the Bible have credibility as the manual for life?

2. How can the Bible bring about happiness?

3. Memorize Psalm 100:21 and write it below. How does this verse bring security to the believer?
