

Recruiting

Introductions

Stimulus Questions

1. Define what you mean by recruiting
2. Were you recruited to be a disciple by a disciplemaker who trains you now or did so in the past? If so, how were you recruited?

What is Recruiting?

(As used here, we mean recruiting people to be and to make disciples)

Recruiting is the process of helping people, as a servant of God and of others, to move from their current spiritual state to maturity in Christ.

How Does One Recruit?

Be a Christ-follower

Find laborers

Inform, motivate, lead & help people commit to the kingdom

Tasks of the Recruiter

- Relate to him/her
- Assess his/her current state
- Listen to him/her
- Communicate
 1. Interest
 2. Enthusiasm
 3. Next steps
- Assess response to you and God's Word

Skills Needed by the Recruiter

- Relational Skills—engaging, interesting, interested, energetic, listening, etc.
- Communication Skills—ability to communicate effectively, to motivate, to adapt to the individual and to different personalities/learning styles/other characteristics
- Word Skills—knowledge of the Bible, of how to understand it and of how to use it