• THE PARENTING PERSPECTIVE

Deuteronomy 6:4-7 (NIV)

Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up.

"We have no right to complain about how our children develop if we are not heavily and purposefully investing in our children's moral and spiritual character. Those who fill the gap in our absence are mere substitutes for us when we don't pull our weight. If we default on our responsibility, we cannot blame those substitutes for making the most of the opportunity. This is, after all, part of the battle for the minds and heart of humanity."

George Barna

INDEPENDENT OF US

"We should give conscience thought to the reasonable, orderly transfer of freedom and responsibility, so that we are preparing the child each year for the moment of full independence, which must come." Dr. James Dobson

INTERDEPENDENT WITH OTHERS

1 Corinthians 12:12-14

The body is a unit, though it is made up of many parts; and though all its parts are many, they form one body. So it is with Christ. For we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body—whether Jews or Greeks, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink. Now the body is not made up of one part but of many.

Klakulak Family Philosophy

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself. All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments. Matthew 22:37-40

- I. The Heart (passion)
  - Our ultimate desire for our children is that they be followers and lovers of God. We want them to show love for others because of their love for God. "By this shall all men know that you are mine, if you have love for one another all the time." John 13:34-35
  - It is extremely important that our children show character in every endeavor. This will be demonstrated through love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, and self-control.
  - We will focus on having an attitude of service.
  - We will show good manners inside and outside of our home.
- II. The Soul (will)
  - Our lives demonstrate a striving for excellence and discipline.
  - We choose to place ourselves under the instruction of others by being submissive and accountable.
  - We strive to be teachable and flexible.
  - We will work at controlling our tongues and listening to others.
- III. The Mind (intelligence)
  - We believe that a Bible based education will encompass a pursuit of excellence in academic learning and social development.
  - Our desire is to strengthen our children's conscience, thus giving them good selfgoverning skills showing discernment.
  - We want our children to have a good work ethic, to be prepared, to be selfmotivators, and to be able to follow instructions.
  - Our eventual goal would be that our children incorporate effectively their person, ideas, and knowledge into almost any arena.
