

Every Day is Easter

Warren Wiersbe

I. Introduction.

A. Text: 1 Corinthians 16.

B. There is resurrection power for us to live by. (Philippians 3)

II. Every day is Easter day when you are helping other people.

A. One cannot have spirituality without generosity.

B. Giving ought to be systematic on the first day of the week--resurrection day.

C. Every person should give--rich and poor.

III. Every day is Easter day when we are doing God's will in face of the problems.

IV. Every day is Easter day when we are working together for Christ.

A. Paul had great friends--you can tell a life by a person's friends.

B. We need all sorts of people in the church.

V. Every day is Easter day when we are looking for Jesus' return

A. Those who do not bow down to Jesus Christ are under a curse.

B. We can experience resurrection life changing power through Jesus Christ.

Application questions:

1. How can you maximize your service to other people?

2. What problems are you facing that resurrection power can bring to a solution? Explain.

3. In what ways does the church often fail to work together towards a common goal? What can we do to improve this?
