IS YOUR SPIRITUAL LIFE STAGNATING?

"Does your Christian life have the feel of an old armchair," asks Kirkie Morrissey, "faded and worn, kind of lumpy, but so familiar you can't bear the thought of change?"

If you're beginning to notice that your relationship with God has become a bit threadbare, if you catch yourself thinking the Christian life should be more exciting, if you long for the promise of something life-changing, this Bible study is for you. Through a refreshing look at the parable of the sower, Kirkie Morrissey reveals the pleasure of responding to God's offer of a deeply satisfying relationship with Himself—a relationship strong enough to survive life's stresses and disappointments.

Kirkie brings relevant Scripture passages to life with the help of questions that engage your emotions and focus your thoughts. She also shares stories from her own life and presents illuminating quotes from Christians of past ages. As you study with her, you will soon begin to experience for yourself the joy and excitement of a lifelong, life-changing love for God.
